Excalibur is said to have been given to King Arthur by the Lady of the Lake. The sword was said to be unbreakable and could cut through anything. It was also said to be able to heal the sick and wounded.

According to legend, King Arthur was mortally wounded in the Battle of Camlann. As he lay dying, he asked his faithful knight, Sir Bedivere, to return Excalibur to the Lady of the Lake. Bedivere took the sword to the lake and threw it into the water. The Lady of the Lake caught the sword and returned it to her underwater home.

There are many different versions of this legend. Some say that the Lady of the Lake broke Excalibur into pieces and scattered them across the bottom of the lake. Others say that she kept the sword for herself and that it is still hidden in her underwater palace.

Whatever the truth may be, the legend of Excalibur and the Lake In The Clouds continues to fascinate people to this day. The lake is a popular tourist destination, and many people come here in hopes of finding the shards of Excalibur.
