In the post-apocalyptic world of End of Days, there are no rules. The world has been ravaged by an electromagnetic pulse (EMP) that has knocked out all electronics, and the survivors are left to fend for themselves in a lawless land.

In this prequel to the End of Days series, we follow the story of John, a young man who is trying to survive in this new world. John is a skilled hunter and tracker, and he knows how to live off the land. But when he comes across a group of survivors who are being terrorized by a ruthless gang, he knows he has to do something to help.

John and his new allies must band together to fight for their survival against the gang and the other dangers that lurk in this post-apocalyptic world. They must learn to trust each other and work together if they want to have any hope of surviving.
