Synopsis: The Silver Surfer arrives on Earth and meets Georgia Stephen, a young woman who is dying of cancer. Georgia tells the Surfer her story, and he is moved by her strength and courage. The Surfer vows to help Georgia, and he takes her to the planet Moondragon, where he hopes she can be healed. Moondragon is a powerful telepath, and she is able to heal Georgia's body. However, Georgia's mind is still damaged, and she is unable to remember who she is. The Surfer takes Georgia back to Earth, and he promises to stay with her until she can regain her memory.

Review: This is a touching and heartwarming story about the Silver Surfer's encounter with a young woman who is dying of cancer. The Surfer is moved by Georgia's strength and courage, and he vows to help her. The story is well-written and emotionally resonant, and it is a classic example of the Silver Surfer's compassion and empathy.
